Recommendations:

Russ Rau, Head Coach, Wheatland Spikes- Molly is an outstanding softball player as well as an unselfish team player. I have coached against her and watched her play for the past 8 softball seasons and have watched her grow into a special softball player. As her coach now, I get to see Molly and her calm, but competitive personality and how she brings those attributes to the softball field. She is a team player in the sense that she understands her role from game to game, whether more for her offense and hitting or on defense, playing defense where it best helps the team. She is a very solid hitter that can hit for power or bunt for a single. She has calmness at the plate that is second to none. Her base speed is deceptive and her anticipation & knowledge on the bases is exceptional. As a fielder, she brings strength to the defense as a left-handed first baseman with good defensive understanding of the game. Molly has a calm & positive attitude and a drive that would be an asset to any college program and I hope you will consider her.
